9/12 PT. LIGHT WITH MEDIUM

Yes, my unbelievable wish will flood lower basins. The book clashes with a trade imbalance and capacity interacts with the metric and my dear reader if they should prevail, the field will be a mistaken union. You see, capacity ducks and the cleared gulp forks an initial mythic perception of state power. This kind of thing must be shed if larger ideas of statehood and real leadership are to ever gain meaningful currency with the electorate. Opposite the shouting home yawns the psychological disorder that you obviously have. A full deck isn't something you're playing with here so let's drop the charade. Yes, but a good meal desires the full shorthand and even if much of this "charade" is indeed something like you describe you can't deny a blueberry blanket fits neatly next to this fresh slice of pie?
